

Final Paper:

- Due Thursday, May 31 in class AT 9:00 AM (If you prefer to submit your paper before the final exam, please submit a hard copy in class)
- Should be 4-5 double spaced pages (in other words, your paper should be at least four full pages but not go over the five-page limit)
- Use Times New Roman, 12pt font and one-inch margins
- Include page numbers at the bottom or top corner of each page
- Your paper should be stapled and include your full name, date, and course number
- Use your preferred citation style (footnotes, endnotes, or parenthetical citations)
- Your paper should include an introduction, several body paragraphs, and a conclusion. Each body paragraph should have a clear topic sentence, evidence, and analysis
- Your evidence should draw from the course readings, discussions, and lectures (especially Vargas' "Latinos and the Challenges of the Twenty-First Century")

Prompt: Five decades after the Chicano Movement, ethnic Mexicans continue to fight for equal access to education, improved economic opportunities, immigrant rights, political inclusion, and affordable healthcare. Discuss how these challenges are shaping the lives of ethnic Mexicans in the twenty-first century and what Mexican Americans and Mexican immigrants are doing to address these issues.