Week Two Papers Returned

Hello,

Your week two papers have been returned with feedback. Please return to the Waypoint submission portal and review the paper, the rubric, and the summary of the feedback for your paper. Please be sure to incorporate any feedback in the outline and the final paper.

Remember, you must use the Constitution, case law, and scholarly articles/books as your source material. All sources should be located using the Ashford Library, not the world wide web. Do not use essay sites such as UK Essays, Course Hero, or any other so-called helper websites. These are sites designed to help students cheat on assignments and only serve to weaken the value of your degree. I also have logins for each of these sites, which enables me to compare the submissions for this class to what is posted there. Plagiarized papers will earn a zero and be reported to the academic honesty office.

If you have any questions, please reach out to me in Canvas.
